

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

-v-

JONATHAN MOYNAHAN LARMORE,

Defendant.

24 Cr. 140 (PAE)

ORDER

PAUL A. ENGELMAYER, District Judge:

The Court has reviewed the Government's letter of September 25, 2024, moving to exclude the proposed testimony of defense expert John Nicholson, and in the alternative, for a Daubert hearing, Dkt. 73; and the defense's letter response of October 2, 2024, belatedly amplifying, to some degree, on the content of and bases for Mr. Nicholson's proposed testimony, Dkt. 79.

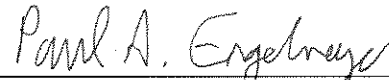

The Court's judgment is that, to enable a considered resolution of the Government's motion, it is necessary to conduct a pretrial Daubert hearing. The purpose of the hearing will be to enable the Court to assess Mr. Nicholson's qualifications, and the methodology underlying, and the relevance and reliability of, his proposed testimony. The Court expects that the defense will conduct a direct examination of Mr. Nicholson on these points; that the Government will then conduct a cross-examination; and that following Mr. Nicholson's testimony, the Court will hear argument on whether to permit, limit, or exclude the proposed testimony.

The Daubert hearing will be held—in person—on Wednesday, October 9, 2024, beginning at 9 a.m. In light of the imminent trial date and the late date at which this issue arose, the Court does not have flexibility to schedule the hearing at a later date.<sup>1</sup> The hearing will be held in Courtroom 1305 of the Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse.

To enable the Court to focus in advance on the issues presented, the Court authorizes the Government to file a reply to the defense's letter of October 2, 2024. That reply is due Sunday, October 6, 2024, at 5 p.m. The Court expects the reply to focus on the application of the Daubert standards to Mr. Nicholson's proposed testimony, as the defense has now elaborated upon it. In the event that the defense wishes to respond in writing to this reply, its letter is due October 7, 2024, at 5 p.m. These deadlines are firm.

SO ORDERED.
